

By Order from Mr Vice-Chancellor.

V Hereas Thomas Dye and John Foffet, have without Licence from Mee, and in contempt of the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of this University (to whom the Ordering and Governing of all Carriers of what kind soever, Trading to or with the University and City of Oxford, doth of Right belong) presumed to set up a Coach to Travail from hence to London: These are strictly to require all Scholars, Priviledged Persons and Members of this University, not to Travail in the said Coach set up by Thomas Dye and John Foffet, or either of them; nor to send Letters or any Goods whatsoever by the afore-said Coach.

P. MEWS Vice-Chan.

Oxford April 22.

1672.

